

- Personal Considerations - Are there other things that I would like to do more.
- Political Considerations - Do I have the right not to run.

- If I stay in office what should I expect?

- a) declining <sup>general</sup> popularity. The "thrill" and newness is gone. I'm just a struggling politician running a reasonably good foot. Today is not 4 years ago.
- b) rampant antagonism. All employees, women's groups, poor people, communists, human comm.
- c) lack of excitement ~~and~~ & turnover within the Prog. Coal. & the Adm. We have been very cohesive. It may break.
- 1) personal antagonisms & jealousies.
- 2) people cannot continue to work as hard. Run out.
- 3) Split over relationship to the Dem. Pat. Deep down, a # of our people would like the return of Caddy & the O. P.
- d) Do we become a humdrum "good foot"?
- e) Are our ideas so our ideas represent the moral of Burke.
- f) The NP is ~~has~~ failed.
- g) We are not coming up with candidacies for office.
- h) We are not relating well to workers & poor people.
- i) relating to the media.
- j) Bond issue - big money.
- k) Voluntary effort - Poor.
